Webinar Description:

Jesus' way of life is the best example of systematic benevolence in practice. How can the biblical principles of consistent giving, reveal God's character in the lives of His modern-day disciples? Do we need more appeals to support God's mission? Or should our understanding of the biblical regular and systematic Giving, enough to support the world church mission until Jesus comes?

Quote: *“Worship is giving God the best that He has given you. Be careful what you do with the best you have. Whenever you get a blessing from God, give it back to Him as a love gift. ### D. Mission Driven Life (Colossians 4:2-6)

1. Partnership with God (Colossians 3:17, 22-24)

2. Systematic Giver (Deuteronomy 14:22-29; 26:1-11; Matthew 6:33; 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:5)

- Regular and systematic giving is more than how we give/return our gifts to the owner; it is the heart’s intention to make giving a priority, an affirmation of God’s blessing.
- Regular giving is God’s key to produce a connection between us and Him based on Trust and Faithfulness. (Malachi 3:10)

Quote: “I place no value on anything I have or may possess, except in relation to the kingdom of God. If anything will advance the interests of the kingdom, it shall be given away or kept, only as by giving or keeping it, I shall most promote the glory of Him to whom I owe all my hopes in time or eternity.”—David Livingstone

2. Humility Before God – Regular and systematic giving produces genuine humility on one's heart as he/she reflects on everything that God has given.

Quote: "You have not lived today until you have done something for someone who can never repay you." — John Bunyan

IV. Conclusion:

Jesus' perfect life of a Steward is man's greatest model and example for our modern, end-time living. As He consistently gave Himself generously from the beginning of time, and through eternity, our lives as modern-day stewards are to be as faithful as the mercy and faithfulness of Jesus, which are new every morning (Lamentation 3:23).

And as our great Lord, God, Owner, and Giver of all things in this world, and to each one of us, we can always put our Trust in Him and in all circumstances. (2 Timothy 1:12)

He continuously gave everything He has for our good, even death on the cross. A life worth living, a life worthy to be imitated by all His modern-day disciples. Our systematic benevolence is an acknowledgement of Jesus' life impact on our own lives. His exceeding generosity is like spring, the source of living water that never stops making an impression in another soul's life waiting to be ushered to God's kingdom. Our planned giving consistently desires that more souls will be won to the kingdom. Our generosity and giving pattern, becomes missional in nature, as we understand that everything God allows us to manage are given, only to direct glory to Jesus who is the greatest and perfect Steward of all.

A consistent divine influence produces a joyful heart, blessed enough to partner with Jesus through systematic giving.
