Did you know that almost the same thing happens with Adventists and their love towards God?

Motion graphics showing that half of the number of those who are baptized every year, end up leaving the church.

SC. 03

Now, the question is: How can someone prevent such condition?

Emotional connection between two persons comes from time they spent together. So, in order to connect with God, you'll need to develop the habit of spending time with Him daily, in activities such as prayer, reading and reflecting on the Bible, studying the Sabbath School lesson and Family Worship.

But Jesus talks also about another important principle for developing affection towards God: "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matt. 6:21).

SC. 07

If your treasure is invested in heaven, by helping the poor and supporting God's cause, then your affections will also be there.

Ellen G. White. says "Through every investment made [in God's treasury], they [the givers] will become more wedded to the cause of present truth" (Counsels on Stewardship, p. 73).

SC. 09

As you return your tithes and give your Promise, ask Jesus to strengthen your connection with Him, and to give you knowledge to invest your time in seeking God First, every morning.

SC. 10

May we put our desires last and God first.
