SUMMARY

In 1837, Charles Dickens described the plight of orphans, saying, “Here they all live, without need or want of anything. I have seen them busy in their garden of delight, a sample of the perfection of their government, and the beauty of the earth that God has given them. There, beneath the tree of life; and every time they invested in the kingdom of heaven, we lay up for ourselves treasures in heaven. That’s what Jesus tells us. Americans believe that; they believe that the future is better than the past. But they do not believe in the larger hope of the future. That’s why Jesus brings us the good news about the Kingdom of Heaven. He tells us that the future is better than the past. That’s why Jesus brings us the good news about the Kingdom of Heaven.”

Matthew 6:33

A spirit of faithfulness among God’s people and is now in four languages: German and Turkish. Now available in Dutch, Farsi, and Spanish. Offerings Readings are now available in German and Turkish.

Offerings can be a very easy part of our stewardship. God First is published monthly by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventist Department of Stewardship Ministries. People who have expressed interest in getting information about Stewardship Ministries, have opted into our God First newsletter, or have opted to receive information about the January 2020 issue of the Stewpot.

EVEN THOUGH WE CARRY THE WEIGHT OF SIN AND SORROW EVERYWHERE WE TURN, WE KNOW THROUGH FAITH IN GOD AND HIS WORD THAT HE HAS PREPARED SOMETHING BETTER FOR US.

WE KNOW THAT THE PRESENT WORLD IS NOT OUR HOME. THAT SUSTAINS US AS CHRISTIANS AND SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS. EVEN PEOPLE WHO HAVE NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH OF THE SCRIPTURES KNOW THAT THIS WORLD IS NOT THEIR HOME.

“...And all things, whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them.” (Matthew 7:12, KJV)
