

God First Datinig

February 29, 2020.

AUDIO

VÍDEO

SC. 01

“Two more months and this relationship will be broken,”

That’s what Marcos heard from Cleide, his neighbor, after she saw him talking to a girl.

Motion graphics and illustrations.

SC. 02

Can’t blame her! All of Marcos’ serious relationships lasted no more than three months. Mostly because of emotional immaturity and his inability to love.

Motion graphics and illustrations.

SC. 03

But that was about to change. It was during a week of prayer that Marcos first heard about the “God First” principle.

“But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you” (Matt. 6:33).

Motion graphics and illustrations.

SC. 04

The verse was taught in the context of finances, but Marcos was willing to use it in all areas of his life. He would pray before starting anything. And that includes dating.

Motion graphics and illustrations.

AUDIO

Now, would it be weird to invite Mari to pray before taking her on a date? Marcos was really hesitant. What would she think?

SC. 05

But then he thought: "If she leaves me because of a prayer, then the sooner the better."

So he went for it. He believed his chances would be greater if he put God first.

Well, today, Marcos and Mari have been married for more than thirty years and have committed their lives to serving God as Adventist missionaries in their country and abroad.

SC. 06

God calls us to put Him first in all aspects of life, including our relationships, and even finances.

When we set apart His tithe and our Promise, even before any other expenses are met, God assures that all the other things we need shall be added to us.

SC. 07

May we put our desires last and God first.

SC. 08

VÍDEO

Motion graphics and illustrations.

Motion graphics and illustrations.

Motion graphics and illustrations.

Adventist Logo