Stewards From the Cradle

D Snell. Jesus knows our needs better than we do ourselves, and most important is the unity in our youngest disciples. Read it on Steward, vol. 2, no. 1, January-March 1998, pp. 9, 10. https://stewardship.adventist.org/current-quarter.

Love God back and surrender our sinful ways, our fears, our twisted notions of right and wrong. Watch video insights.

Fourth, no Christian should do less for God than what he or she can do for the needs of others. God has an established system, one of the duties of a minister is preaching. And for me, preaching is a significant consequence. What is that consequence? Preaching should be followed by opportunities to make people's lives better. They should be given the chance to reflect, and analyze.

Jesus knew that what he needed most was healing from sin. Pastor Snell points out in our youngest disciples.

Matthew 6:33

First, no Christian should do less for God than what he or she can do for the needs of others. God has an established system, one of the duties of a minister is preaching. And for me, preaching is a significant consequence. What is that consequence? Preaching should be followed by opportunities to make people's lives better. They should be given the chance to reflect, and analyze.

Jesus knew that what he needed most was healing from sin. Pastor Snell points out in our youngest disciples.

Matthew 6:33

First, no Christian should do less for God than what he or she can do for the needs of others. God has an established system, one of the duties of a minister is preaching. And for me, preaching is a significant consequence. What is that consequence? Preaching should be followed by opportunities to make people's lives better. They should be given the chance to reflect, and analyze.

Jesus knew that what he needed most was healing from sin. Pastor Snell points out in our youngest disciples.

Matthew 6:33

First, no Christian should do less for God than what he or she can do for the needs of others. God has an established system, one of the duties of a minister is preaching. And for me, preaching is a significant consequence. What is that consequence? Preaching should be followed by opportunities to make people's lives better. They should be given the chance to reflect, and analyze.

Jesus knew that what he needed most was healing from sin. Pastor Snell points out in our youngest disciples.

Matthew 6:33

First, no Christian should do less for God than what he or she can do for the needs of others. God has an established system, one of the duties of a minister is preaching. And for me, preaching is a significant consequence. What is that consequence? Preaching should be followed by opportunities to make people's lives better. They should be given the chance to reflect, and analyze.

Jesus knew that what he needed most was healing from sin. Pastor Snell points out in our youngest disciples.