

Instructions For Life

January 22, 2022

AUDIO

Life is so complicated that we sometimes fear not being able to find the right direction!

sc. 01

That doesn't have to be so for our life's journey. Humanity was created with a manual to journey through the maze of life. Through His Word and the Holy Spirit, the Divine Provider instructs us about managing our relationships and our God-given resources. Even though He can straighten what we've ruined, our life's journey may become smoother if we look for His directions before starting it!

Those who follow His instructions are on track to reach their goals and the final destination. As you worship God with your tithe and Promise (regular and systematic offerings), invite Him to lead you in your life decisions and the management of your resources! May we put our desires last and God first!
