SOMEONE IS WATCHING

Lettering: "Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?"
(Psalm 139:7)

Once upon a time, a man had a cunning plan. He wanted to steal corn from his neighbor's cornfields.

He thought, "If I take just a little from each field, no one will notice."

He set out on a dark, overcast night, taking his little daughter with him for a lookout.

When he got to the first field, he heard his daughter whisper, "Daddy, someone's watching you!"

Startled, he moved to the second field, only to hear his daughter's voice again saying,
"Daddy, someone is watching you!"

Annoyed, he asked, "Why do you keep saying that someone is watching me? I've looked everywhere, and I don't see anyone."

But the little girl, pointing to the dark sky, whispered, "Dad, Someone is watching you from above."

This story reminds us that when we sin alone, even at night and indoors, we sin in the presence of God.

Living faithfully means remembering that God is always by our side, not to instill fear but to protect, guide, and bring joy.

Living like this means we can remain faithful even when we're away from our spouse or we are the only Christians in the classroom or at work. There is always Someone watching!

CN. 03

As you express your faithfulness through the return of Tithes and Promise, regular and systematic offerings, thank God for the privilege of living and walking in the company of a God of love and mercy.

May we put our desires last and God first.
