

WARRIORS FOR JESUS

MARCH 11

GRAPHICS AND CLIPS

CN. 01 It happened on the island of Mindoro, Philippines. Jaslene* was making her family's breakfast when suddenly gunfire shattered the peace. Her husband, Antonio, raced into the house, grabbed his gun, and began shooting back. Government soldiers had ambushed them because they were rebel fighters.

CN. 02 Jaslene grabbed her children and raced into the forest. When Jaslene and her children slipped back home, they learned that the soldiers had killed Antonio. This led her to teach her children how to survive in the jungle and to fight to avenge their father's death.

CN. 03 One day, while working, Jaslene was listening to her radio. The words of a song touched her heart: "Coming again, coming again, Jesus is coming again!" The speaker spoke about Jesus, the Kind and Loving Savior. Her heart warmed as she heard that God loved her and offered her forgiveness. Soon she accepted Jesus as her Savior and prayed to be able to forgive her enemies. Her children followed her example, and soon they all were baptized.

CN. 04 Sometime later, Jaslene met the speaker of Adventist World Radio. Tearfully, she asked him, "Pastor, why did it take you so long to come and tell us this good news about God? If only you had come before my husband died. He would have given up his fighting before it was too late." Then she added, "This broadcast must go to other villages in the mountains! They need to hear about Jesus before it is too late!"

NARRATION

CN. 05 Now Jaslene and her children are replacing hatred with joy and forgiveness and encourage their friends to trade their bullets for Bibles.

CN. 06 Every time you distribute your "Promise" offering according to the Combined Offering Plan's suggestion, you are equitably supporting all the church's projects, locally, regionally, and internationally, including Adventist World Radio. But you may also want to give directly to Adventist World Radio after you have returned your Tithe and "Promise." Just access <https://awr.org/support/>. As we return our Tithe and "Promise," regular and systematic offerings, let's put our desires last and God first.
